

David Geng, USA

David Geng resides in Princeton, NJ and studies under Professor Ingrid Clarfield. This year, David was named an NFAA Young Arts Winner in Music. He has also won Third Prizes at the 2014 Dubois International Piano Competition and the 2013 LISMA Foundation International Music Competition, as well as First Prizes at several statewide competitions. He frequently performs in prominent venues such as Carnegie Hall and has attended IIYM and the Southeastern Piano Festival in the past. Aside from piano, David enjoys mathematics, outdoor activities, and inspirational movies.

Semi Finals

Sonata no.26 in E-flat major, op.81a, "Les Adieux"

II. Andante Espresso

III. Vivacissimamente

Ludwig van Beethoven

(1770-1827)

Gaspard de la Nuit (1908)

I. Ondine

Maurice Ravel

(1874-1937)

Etudes d'exécution transcendante in D Minor, S.139

IV. Mazeppa

Franz Liszt

(1811-1876)

Finals

Sonata no. 21 in C major, "Waldstein", op.53

I. Allegro con brio

Ludwig van Beethoven

(1770-1827)

Gaspard de la Nuit (1908)

II. Gibet

III. Scarbo

Maurice Ravel

(1874-1937)

Ballade no.4 in F minor, op.52

Frédéric Chopin

(1810-1849)